CHALLENGE 76

LANCASTER COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL

LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

sailing free with the ocean's waves pushing me, pulling me, further and further from solid land or striding atop a mountain near the sky

where I can reach to touch a cloud performing new music to fit my mood,

finding the room to expand,
        to become lost in the meaning of that moment freedom

or sailing in the wind like a bird whose wings carry him to places so far beyond my dreams that I can see beyond the limits of my horizons

galloping with the strength of a mustang,
mane streaming, body rippling,
wandering an open range

or hiking through hushed woods with the fresh air cleansing my thoughts, my soul, discovering a meandering stream which chose to run
its own course, realizing that I am free to do the same.

TRANSLATION

Quiet is the voice of the soul.
Stillness is the word it speaks.
Silence is its message.
Love is its interpreter.

Fly high my little bird
And to the sun go soaring.
Skim over mountains so high
And white waterfalls roaring.
This is your life; being free.
But someday, you'll come back To me.

Take away love;
and the world is a tomb.

Stephen Bruce Dimitrius Smith I

To every thing there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time a to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace; and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

To A Squirrel
Come play with me;
Why should you run
Through the shaking tree
As though I'd a gun
To strike you dead?
When all I would do
Is to scratch your head
And let you go.

You can muffle the drum and you can loosen the strings of the lyre, but who shall command the skylark not to sing?

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises? If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Bicycle Rider

Teeth bare to the wind
Knuckle white grip on handle bars
You push the pedals of no return,
Let loose new motion and speed
The earth turns with the multiplyed
Force of your wheels.
Do not look back
Feet light on the brake Ride the bicycle of your will Down the spine of the world,
Ahead of your time, into life.
I will not say —
Go slow.

A PENNSUPREME RAIDER

"Come into the mountains, dear friend
Leave society and take no one with you
But your true self
Get close to nature
Your everyday games will be insignificant
Notice the clouds spontaneously forming a pattern
And try to do that with your life"

"'Magic Theatre' is

Carlin

The class of history is a salvation in this microcosm

Having enjoyed the friendship of many people in many places for many years
... I have learned that, in the main, people are as we choose to find them;
that reason
can overcome prejudice;
that knowledge
can overcome ignorance;
that love can overcome hate;
that goodness
can conquer evil.

The ocean is an artist painting its designs on the sand.
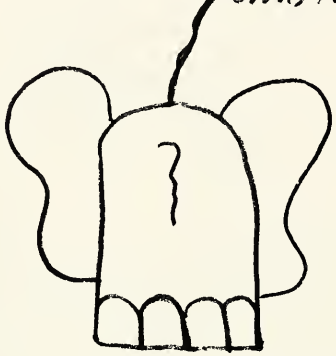
Chris Anderson



I saw this thing of beauty
but its purpose eraded me
So how could this thing of beauty be so nice to see?
And I set myself to thinking that beauty isn't what you see but exactly what you feel.
And I feel love.

Nancy Suzanne Zink

If a picture paints

then why can't I paint you?
The words will never show the you I've come to know.

David Gates

Karen René Graybill

Nature has no love for solitude, and always leans, as it were
on some support;
And the sweetest support is found in the most intimate friendship.

Cicero

Learn animal noises
and commune with nature.
Be able to scare attack dogs.
Out hog hogs.
Win a quarrel with a hen.
Share a pigeon's dinner.
Command a cow to milk itself.
Keep a monkey from eating your bananas.

Try it! It might work.

Dog - wooof!

Hen - cluck!

Pigeon - ddd-d!

Cow - mooo!
Pig - oink!
Monkey - ohh! ooh! ahh! ahh!

Good luck to all!

Andrew Diller Stauffer

(Now for a moment of silence!)

"To be happy it is first of all necessary
To be wise, and always remember
To give the gods their due.
The measure of a proud man's boasting Shall be the measure of his punishment
And teach him late in life
The nature of true wisdom."

—Sophocles

Well I live on a ridgetop
And Lord knows I like it just fine
Where it's windy and foggy
And quiet most all of the time
My lawn is pine needles
And my driveway is ole funky dirt
An' my front pathway markers
Are pieces of granite and chert

Phuong Thi Phung is a nineteen year old student from Vietnam. She came to Lancaster Country Day in the fall of 1975 and spent the better part of the year trying to conquer the English language. This task required great determination, dedication, and many, many hours of work. Phuong had many teachers, several of whom were students. We hope that Phuong benefitted as much from Country Day as we did from her presence in the school.

2001 — A SPACE ODDITY

'Tis the year 2001 and the Class of '76 is gathering together for its 25th reunion. Months of preparation have gone into this extensive endeavor. Engraved invitations were sent to the far-reaching corners of the world in hopes of re-gathering this multi-talented class. The gala occasion having arrived, we now find old classmates established in the following careers.

Chris Anderson is working on editing and compiling an annotated version of Dr. Seuss.

Bruce Droz and Peter Ordal are co-owners of the Philadelphia Flyers and are also major stockholders in the Miller High-Life Beverage Co. Peter, besides the aforementioned pastimes, has just recently declared his intention to run for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

Rana Havens and Nancy Zink have just received recognition by the Guiness Book of World Records for 74 hours of non-stop giggling.

Margie Hall is coming to the reunion after having just won the Clairol vs. Preference by L'Oreal Tennis Tournament.

Avrom Drake is flying in from the Himalayas as his current assignment is to climb the Himalayas in search of the Yeti. This challenging expedition is being sponsored by the National Geographic Society.

Noemi Hernandez is head of the Home Economics Department of her alma mater, Millersville State College.

David P. Peterson has returned to Lancaster County, once more, to become the head ski patrolman at the Long Park Ski Area (he may be seen patrolling only the Advanced slopes).

Beth Williams has just completed her 25th walking of the Appalachian Trail with her sole companion Sam, her dog.

Barbara Schell is busily occupied with her duties as chief-director of the Montessori Day Care Center.

Andy Stauffer is working full-time on THE DUDE RANCH breaking and training his horses.

Henry Holly deserves special note. The editors wish to extend their heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Henry M. Holly for receiving the Nobel Prize for his latest contribution in physics: principles of light defraction caused by rotating bike spokes.

Adriane Givant has successfully completed 15 years of dedicated service to the U.N. as chief interpreter (note: It has been rumored that Adriane has been seen giving Henry Kissinger private wheelchair tours of the Israeli Consulate).

Following up on the international scene is Toni Hull, who, due to unforeseen civil disputes in Moscow, is unable to attend the reunion. Toni is the U.S. Ambassador to the Kremlin at the present moment.

Stephen B. Smith has recently been named President of the Board of Trustees of the School for Hyper-Active children. We are sure that the respectable, laudable, and infamous Sir Smith will do a noteworthy job due to his personal experience with these gifted children.

Phuong Thi Phung is busily occupied with her management job at the Italian Villa.

Pam Pennebaker was severely injured in her latest car, the PSP, but most fortunately, she was able to cut her way through the platinum-plated door panels with her gelatinized fingernails. She is fully recovered and will be presenting this reunion's opening speech.

Karen Graybill, happily married now for 24 years, is the proud mother of 9 children. Her third son has just won a blue ribbon at the Pennsylvania Farm Show for the best home-raised calf.

Stan Hyman is seeking funds to aid in the construction of the world's first floating shopping mall. The Central Pacific Ocean location of these 2001 international, exclusive shops makes it easily accessible by 4 major continents of this world.

Deanna Marschka is occupied with her newest release of the Marschka Method Manual which teaches seven easy ways on how to pick your guitar.

Judy Lewis, star of the hit Broadway show, "Caffein Caddy," has been temporarily hospitalized due to an excessive overdose of caffein.

Beth Robbins was unable to attend the reunion due to her heavy schedule of "international jet-set get-together."

Last, but by no means least, is Paul Duval. Paul, after a highly successful international tour with his newly formed alkaline rock group, HERBAL ESSENCE, has just signed a life-time contract with Schick Corporation, to promote their newest line of hot combs.

THE MADNESS

. . . and now some of us are moving on, to new freedoms and to new challenges . . . to use the education and wisdom we have acquired here and to strengthen those qualities in our future endeavors . . . and for those of us who remain behind . . . we are free to make of what we have what we want . . . to accept the challenge and create our own freedom.
